Somerset High School
Somerset, Massachusetts

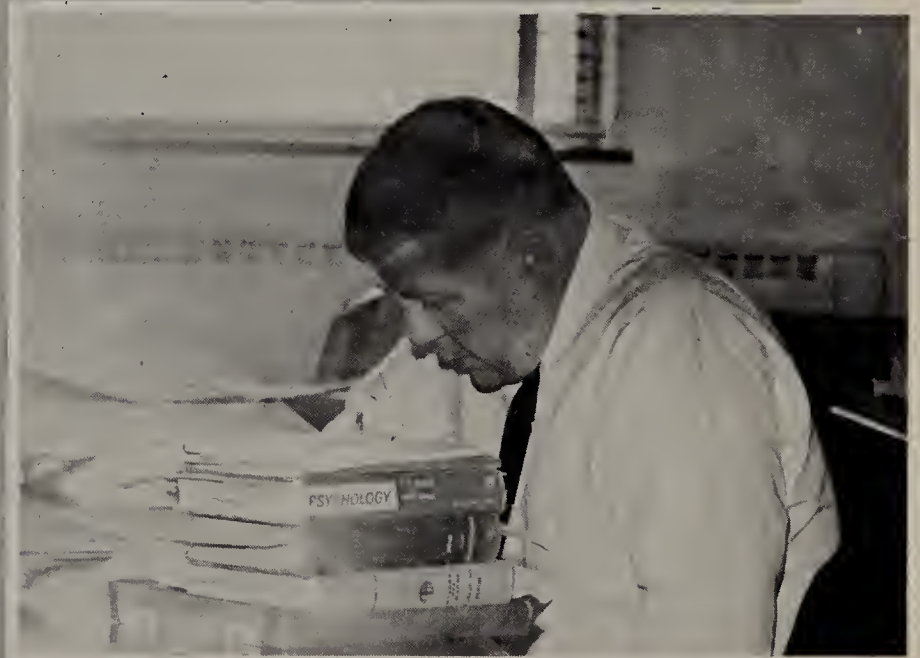

"If I were sitting here and the whole outside world were indifferent to what I was doing, I would still want to be doing just what I am doing now."

Do You Know . . .

the psychology teacher in 302? Do you know the teacher whose wit provokes laughter from those around? Do you know who is notorious for heckling his senior psychology students? Do you know who thinks "Many are called but few are chosen"?

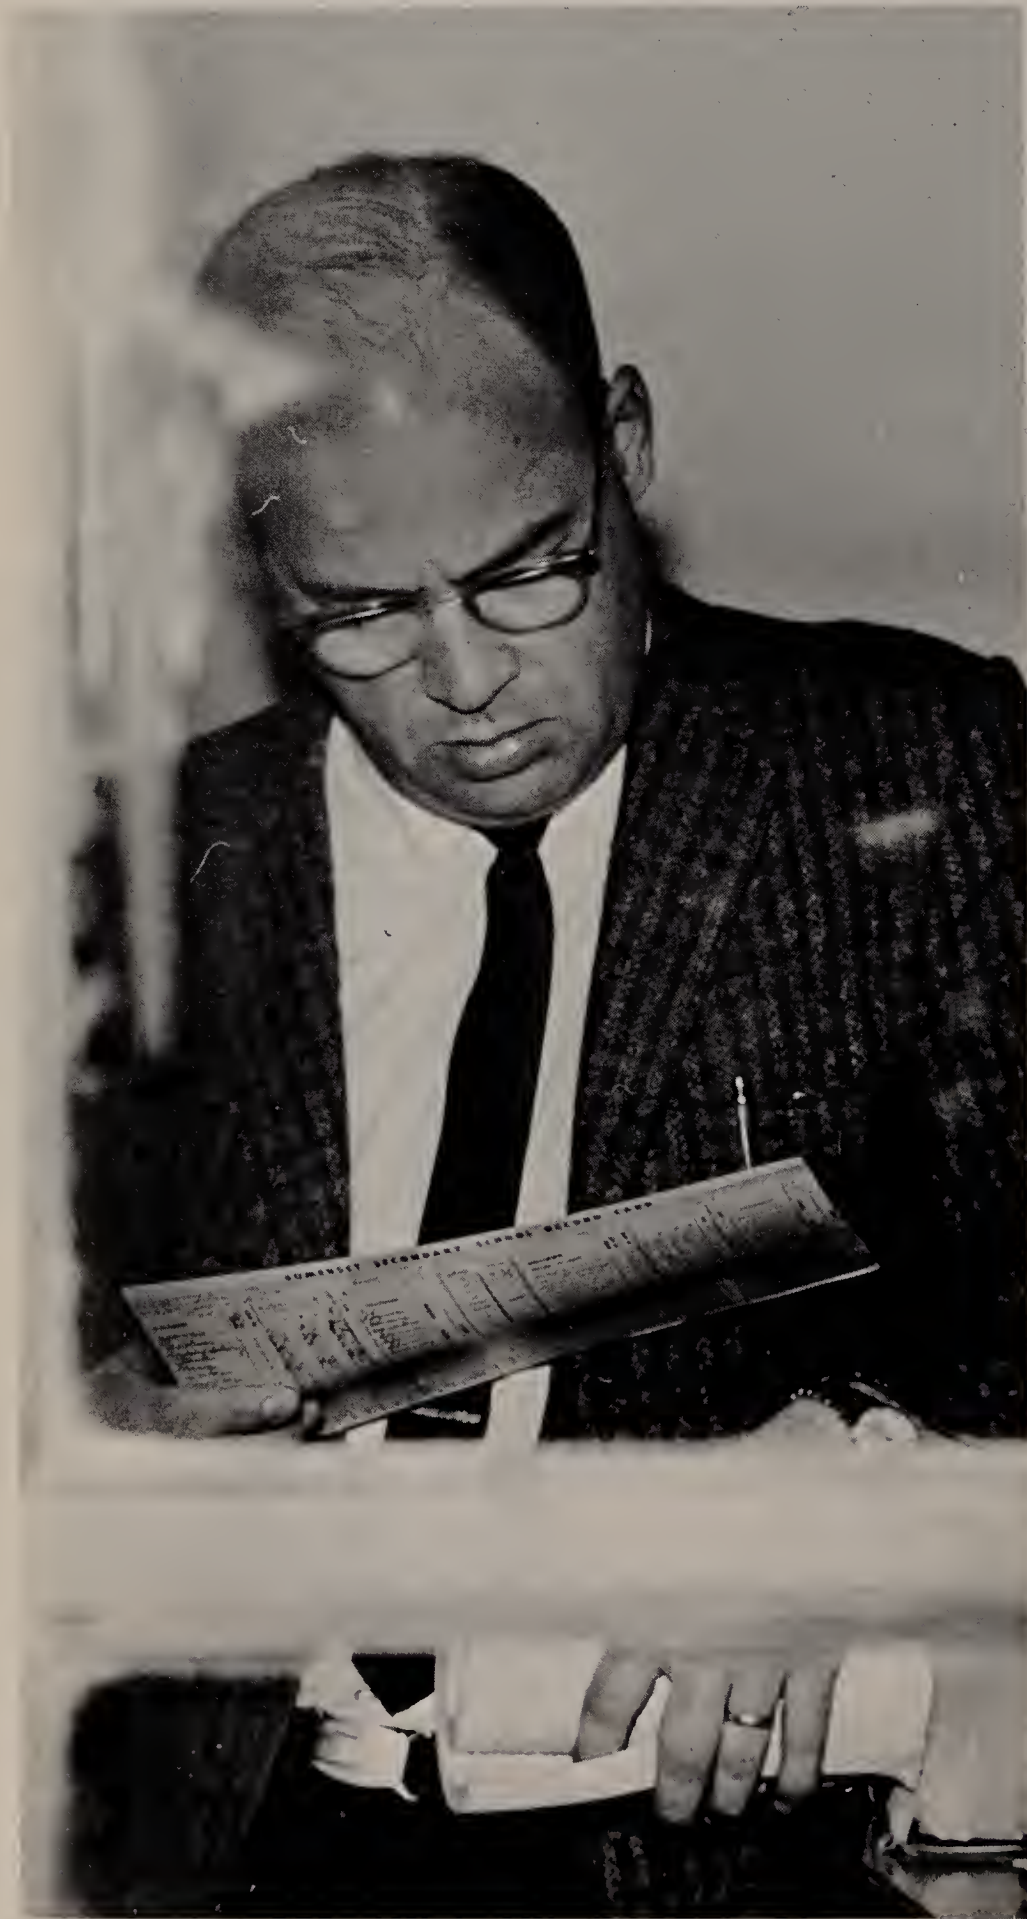

If so, you know our Mr. Leary, the teacher who is dedicated in teaching all his students. To this man we dedicate the 1966 edition of Memoirs.

Our Dedicated

Mr. Charles P. Leary

In Appreciation

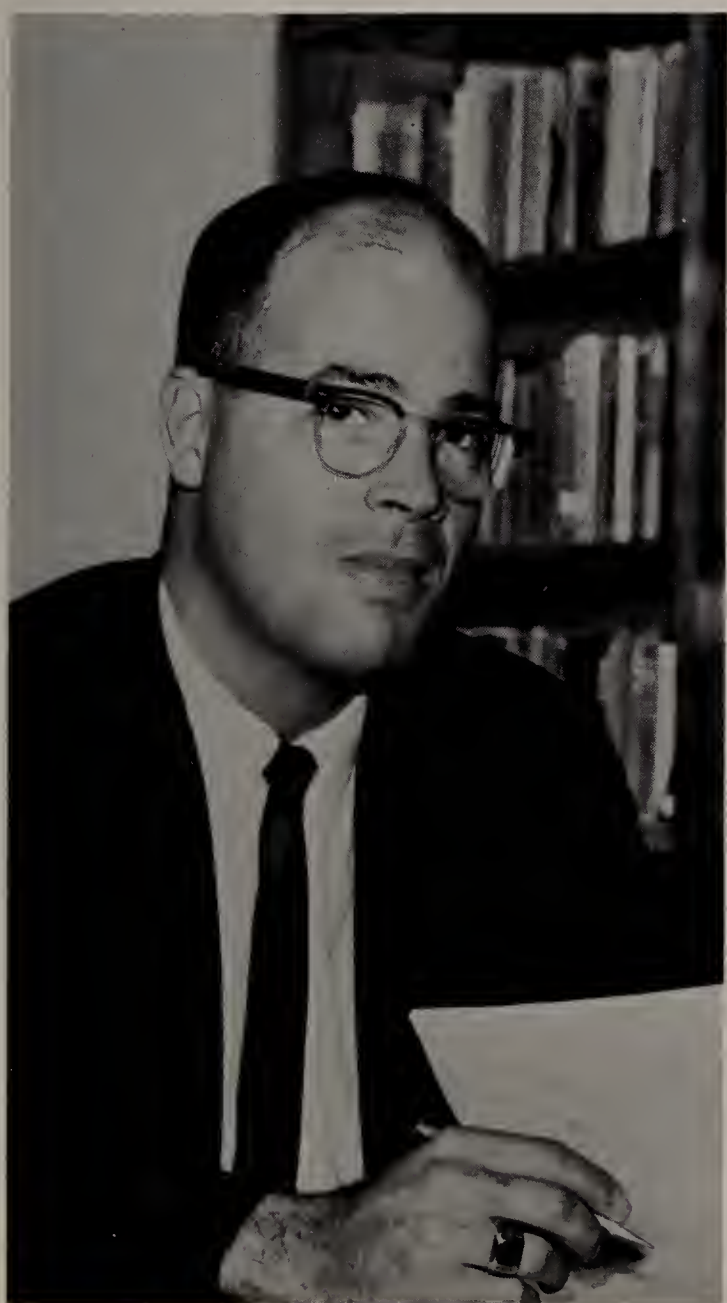

Mr. Harry Donahue, we, the class of 1966, are proud to set aside this part of our yearbook in deep appreciation of your many years of devotion to the students of Somerset High School.

We were glad when you received the position of vice principal at the newly erected junior high school for it was a position that you were so deserving of. But, we the students have felt your absence.

For, as a teacher you overlooked our forgetfulness, our carelessness, and our inconsideration. You made us look within ourselves and laugh. You pushed us farther along the road to maturity. Your calm resolution and your perspective of life took away our anger and substituted understanding. How can we say thank you to a man who has done all this?

Setting aside this expression of our appreciation in Memoirs 1966 is the way we have chosen to say thank you.

Mr. Harry Donahue

Our Principal

Mr. Kaylor has been associated with Somerset High School for seventeen years. He graduated from Providence College where he received a Ph.B. in philosophy. He acquired an M.Ed. in guidance and an M.A. in English from Boston University.

In his first teaching years he taught at the University of Massachusetts extension in Fort Devens. His first assignment on the Somerset faculty was as an instructor of English and social studies. He later became guidance director. For the past six years he has served as our principal, and he has served us well.

Mr. Edward J. Kaylor

WE HAVE HAD JOYS AND SORROWS, DEEP LONGINGS
AND HIGH DREAMS, AND
MANY, MANY PROBLEMS.
BUT WE KNOW THERE IS A
CAUSE FOR EVERY JOY, A
CURE FOR EVERY SORROW, A
SOLUTION TO EVERY PROBLEM,
AND A FULFILLMENT
FOR EVERY ASPIRATION BE-CAUSE WE HAVE BEEN A
PART OF SOMERSET HIGH SCHOOL.

HERE—WE MOVED, THOUGHT,
TALKED, AND ACTED.

Memoirs XXIX

*Somerset High School
Somerset, Massachusetts*

Foreword

A school building is constructed of steel and cement, strong and permanent, but it is designed to accommodate an ever changing flow of students. Year after year busses empty their loads each morning, and people stream in waves into hallways and classrooms. To the rhythm of bells, tides of people wash in and out of rooms and corridors, and finally, back to busses.

As Carl Sandburg has said, "It is the men and women, boys and girls, so poured in and out all day that give the building a soul of dreams and thoughts and memories." As each individual forms a part of the mass, so each personality contributes to the whole of Somerset's soul—that abstract thing we call school spirit. Soon we, the class of 1966, will be leaving the student body. With us we will take our individual dreams and thoughts and memories, many of which we molded in these rooms and halls. Before we leave, we present Memoirs XXIX, an abstract collection of the people and events that filled our year.

Vice Principals

Mr. Morris

Faculty

Few things, besides work, are reserved exclusively for the faculty. The morning rush at the mailbox and the quick minutes of relaxation caught in the faculty lounge are scarce moments of respite.

These industrious souls behind our school actively plan each day. They contribute so much to our school life including: teaching what we must know; developing better citizens; sponsoring intramural activities, clubs, and classes; chaperoning dances; pulling lunchroom duty; executing guidance; conversing with proud or troubled parents at open house; and freely giving of their precious time to help those in trouble or in need.

These all-important people are the true leaders of our school, the men and women we look to for inspiration. They correct, criticize, listen, help, and share their knowledge with us endlessly, without adequate recognition, especially from us, who take all they have to offer.

Enough thanks could not possibly be given to all members of our excellent faculty and administration. The appreciation caught in our innermost selves is too deep to be expressed or even realized, yet.

"Class Will"

May it be remembered that . . . we, the graduating class of 1966, of Somerset High School, Somerset, County of Bristol, State of Massachusetts, being of sound mind and perfect memory do declare this to be our last will and testament hereby revoke any and all previous wills that may have been professed.

To our faculty, to express our deepest regrets for any heartaches we may have caused them, we leave a season's pass to the C.Y.O. and a credit card for MacDonald's hamburgers. To the juniors, who have been striving to become seniors, we leave sincere words of encouragement as they come into the home stretch. And having gained an abundance of knowledge, we leave said knowledge to be equally divided between the sophomore and freshman class.

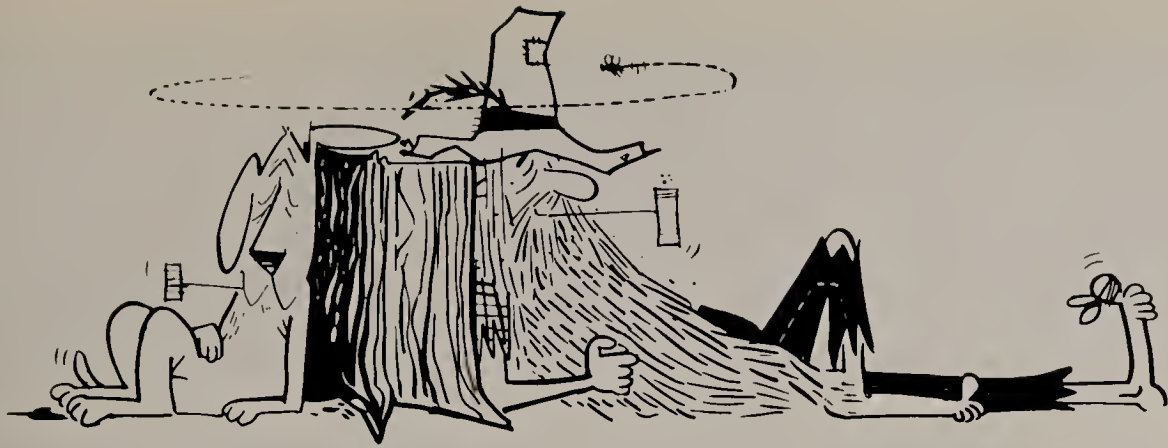

- I, Kathy Arel, leave pep pills for Mr. Alden
- I, Harold Baldwin, leave to Miss Arruda, the pleasant memories of Saturday night November 6!!!
- I, Louella Brillo, leave behind me an unprecedented heritage of "Brilliant Brillos."
- I, Lillian Brisebois, leave Miss Corcoran a little grayer than when I came.
- I, Richard Brough, leave to Mr. Souza a pair of orange shoes.
- I, Phyllis Buffington, was going to leave my strong voice to Mr. Donahue, but he left before me.
- I, William Campos, leave Mr. Newton a large box of popcorn from Zayre's.
- I, Donald Czekanski, leave a lock of my hair to Mr. Mahoney.
- I, Judy Poitras, leave to Mr. Alden our disagreements in English class.
- I, Gerry Pimental, leave my bottle of "sunshine" to anyone desiring a blond streak.
- I, Doris Phillips, leave with many fond memories.
- I, Michael Phelan, after three years, finally leave Mr. Newton.
- I, Richard Parker, leave in my '34 Chevy Impala Super Sport.
- I, Thomas Paine, leave with an "Au Revoir" to Miss Sullivan.
- I, Jim O'Brien, leave to Mr. Newton our exceptionally peaceful homeroom.

- I, James Murphy, leave Jimmy O'Brien to Mr. Newton for one more year.
- I, Richard Mello, leave to Mr. McDonald a bag full of McDonald's Golden Hamburgers.
- I, Terry Irla, leave to my favorite janitor, Mr. Souza, all my dimes and nickles to purchase ice-cream sandwiches.
- I, Karyn Heron, leave my trumpet to any girl who really wants to be different.
- I, Peg Hunt, leave to Mr. Souza a new supply of ulcer pills.
- I, Marsha Belcher, leave to Mr. Donahue my abundantly filled notebook—a substantial contribution to the next Lions' Club paper drive.
- We, Maureen and Kathy Lennon, leave to do a Doublemint commercial.
- I, Tom Reid, leave my educated thumbs to Dickie Ashworth.
- I, Jeff Reback, leave Nellie Belle in the parking lot.
- I, Gerry Rebello, leave to my three brothers and one sister all the fine teachers, especially Mr. Malloy and his J.R.C.
- I, Mike Rogers, leave the Irish flag to Mr. Haggerty.
- I, Wayne Root, leave Jackie Gleason's talent to Mr. Newton.

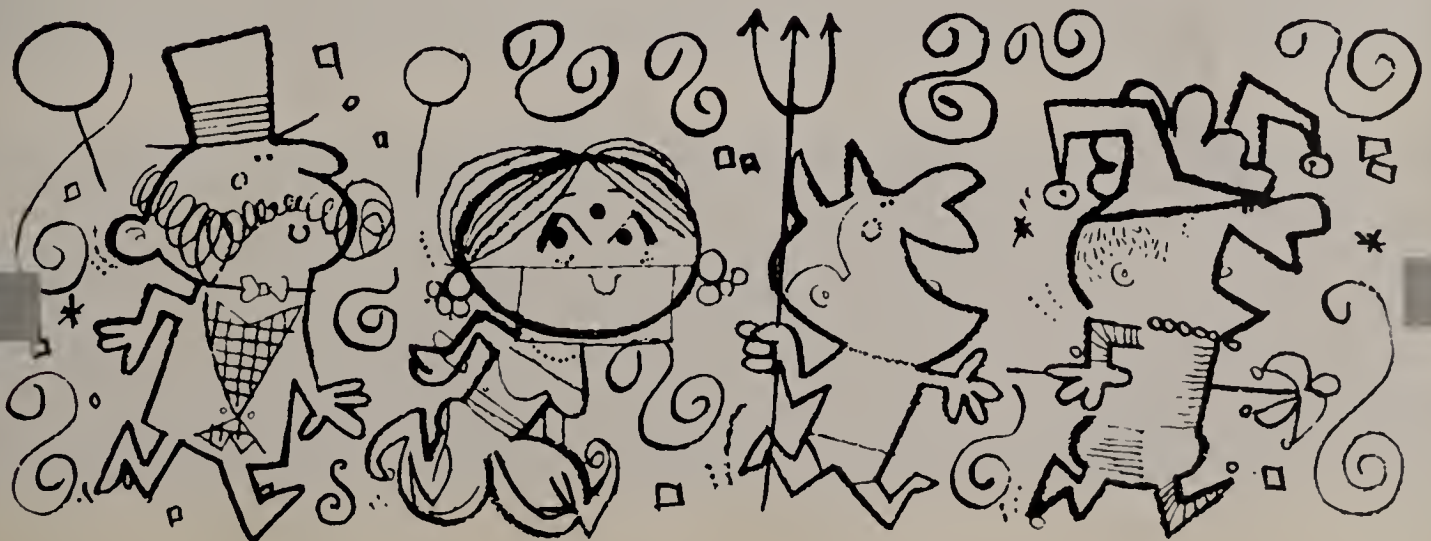

I, Paul Schlenker, leave to Mr. Kelly a mirror to see all his wonderful faces.
 I, Kenny Silvia, leave trying to think of something to leave.
 I, John Soares, leave what's left of my football equipment to anyone who has the courage to wear it.
 I, Gail Soja, leave to anyone who wants to be at school 7:30 a.m. five days a weeks my perfect attendance in the various musical organizations.
 I, Sandra Sousa, leave my typing eraser to any poor typist who may need it.
 I, Joy Vandgrift, alias Crash, leave to Mr. Sinclair a completely demolished physics lab.
 I, Zac Verros, leave my height (5' 3") to Mr. Mahoney.
 I, Gene Wallace, leave my promptness to Jack Kinaine.
 I, Clifford Winters, leave to Coach Sullivan peace and tranquilizers for all the gray hairs and ulcers which I caused him to receive during the past football season.
 I, Steven Courcier, leave Morgan Biastoff, for Mr. Leary to suffer.
 I, Connie Dobson, wish everybody health before wealth.
 I, Earl Fox, leave behind my turtleneck and levis to the dress code committee.
 I, Kathy Mederios, leave to Mr. Barrar and Mr. Corcoran my philosophy of life and love!
 We, Carolyn, War, and Kathy, leave Mr. White a ruined man.
 I, Carol Lancashire, leave to my brother Kenny, a girl's gym suit with the girl still in it.
 I, Cecile LaLiberte, do hereby leave my editorship of The Breeze to Richard Dagwan and Steven Rebello.
 I, William Kaylor, gladly leave the watchful eye of the principal.

I, James Jew, leave my recording to Mr. McManus's opinion of the crisis in Vietnam to any P.O.D. student who may need it.
 I, Joan Francoeur, leave Mr. Sinclair locked in the physics lab with his dog.
 I, John Garrity, concede my battle against French and Miss Sullivan, and leave humbled.
 I, Pam Greenough, leave my nine studies to any future senior who can finagle her course.
 I, William Harris, leave my '46 Chrysler "Windsor" to the faculty. It's the least I can do for them.
 I, Edward Baron, being of sound mind and body, do hereby bequeath my tedious tasks in the library to one of next year's seniors.
 I, Barbara Benoit, leave my perpetually long, straight hair to anyone who thinks they can iron it straighter than I can. I also leave to Mr. Matte four orders of fish and chips.
 I, Linda Berube, leave my lab goggles to Lloyd Bridges.
 I, Roger Berube, leave to this school the pleasure of knowing me!
 I, Diane Bienvenue, put an egg in my shoe and beat it.
 I, Pete Bogle, leave the basketball rims to anyone who can reach them.
 I, Jayne Boswell, leave behind a sea of naked eyelids, and to Mr. White a less confusing future, without "turkey lurkie".
 I, Linda Chace, leave my #4 balance which is off .29371 grams to any future chemist who may be lucky enough to acquire this remarkable instrument.
 I, the Spirit of Overtime, leave to Marsha Belcher and Joy Vandgrift three months entirely free of yearbook shipment worries!

In witness thereof, we do hereby set our seal to this testament, on this fifteenth day of June, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and sixty-six.

Baseball

'65

Although the baseball team won only seven games, the campaign proved to be a good building season. Seven of the thirteen losses were decided by one run. The major cause of the losing season was the inexperience of the ballplayers. The inexperience was replaced by experience in the second half of the season, when the Raiders won six of the seven games played.

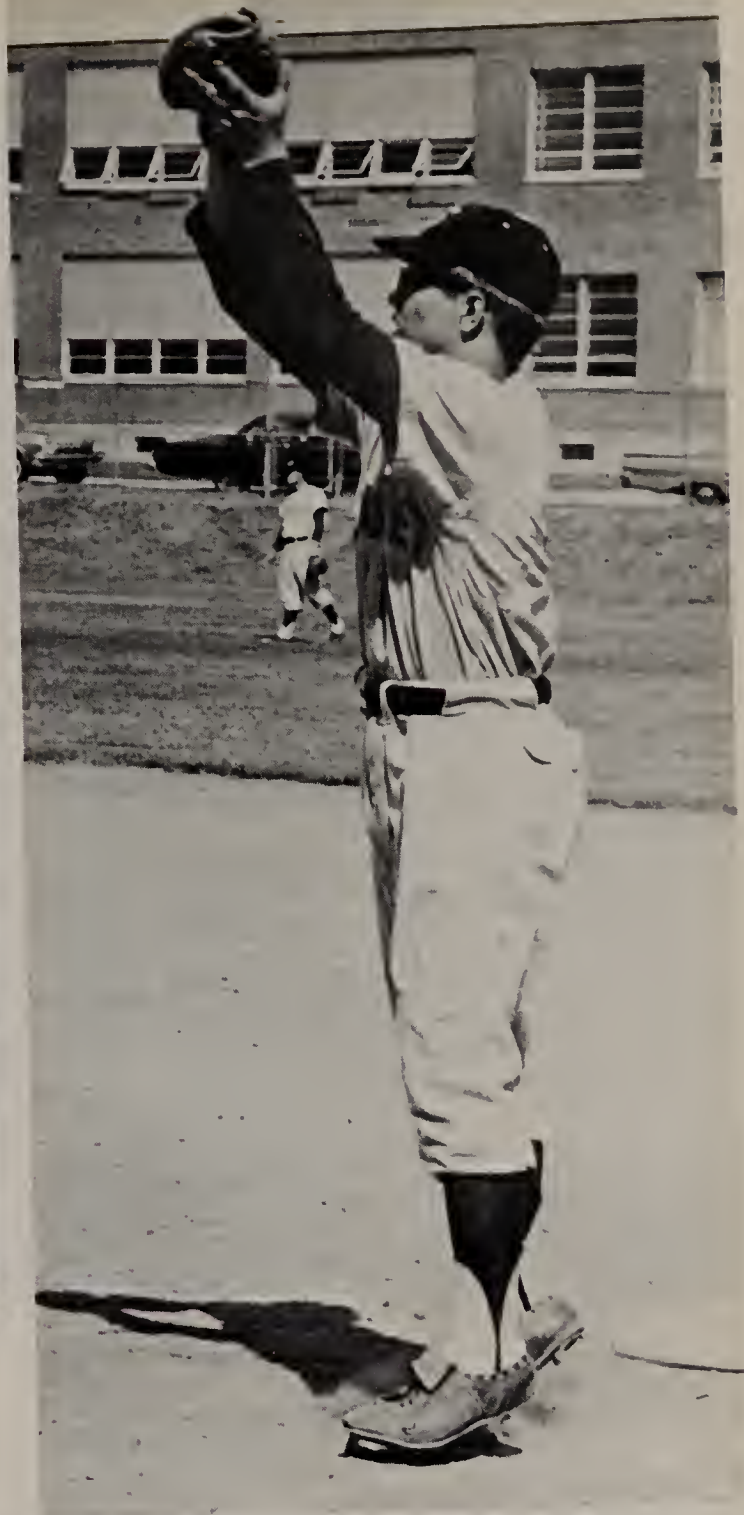

Skip Winters led the team and the Narry League in batting with an average of .420. Tom Paine and Keith Davidson followed Skip in the batting department. Jeff Casey proved to be a fine catcher. Jeff Reback who exhibited fine fielding in the outfield was given an invitation to try out for the New York Yankees along with Skip Winters. Richie Mello was the starting second baseman and he executed many difficult put-outs.

The sting goes away in a matter of minutes, Skip.

Whipping the ball around, Kerry readies for a strike.

That's it Tom—3 out of 4 and we've won!

Don't worry Jeff. Your turn is coming up.

Come on boys! You can make it!

Wow! Is that a muscle or is that a muscle?!!

Track

Although the 1965 track team was not victorious in winning meets, the boys showed a great deal of desire and determination to compete for pure sportsmanship. Bob Brough ran the mile in 4 minutes and 43.6 seconds. This broke the league and school records. He also won the mile race in the Narry League Meet. Gerry Fletcher won the Narry League Meet pole vaulting event by setting a record vault of 11 feet 5 inches.

John Soares competed successfully in the shot and discus events. Bill Kaylor led the team in the sprints and broad jump; he also ran as a member of the relay team. In the 440 dash, Bryan Andrew was a standout. Distance runner Jim Murphy proved to be a formidable opponent. Joe Bettencourt improved greatly in the pole vault. Bruce Seaver threw the javalin with gusto. Bill Morris was one of the top 220 sprinters on the team.

The first meet of the season was a heartbreaking loss by six points to a strong Case team. The team did not meet with success until the All-Narry Meet in which Somerset finished fourth.

1965's Tri-captains Bill Lizotte, Rich Casey, and Dean Mansfield were succeeded in 1966 by Captains Bill Kaylor and John Soares.

Joe on his way up!

Goodie

1965 Softball Team

Under the direction of Miss Corcoran and Co-captains Soares and DeMello, the team finished second in the league with a strong record of six wins and one loss. Kathy Farrel, handling the right field position, and Nancy Finney, working second base, saw good action on the diamonds. Supporting members of the first team were: Kathy Goodwin at first base, Peg Hunt at center field, Sandy Curt at shortstop, Pam Driscoll in left field, and Jo Anne Doyle as catcher. Heading up the mound corp and losing only one of five games, was Pat DeMarco. All these made up a well balanced and united team that set a fine season's record.

Field Hockey

Under the direction of Miss Corcoran and co-captains Maureen Lenlon and Carolyn Spanick, the field hockey team had a very successful 8-2 season. Sandy Curt sparked the offense by scoring 26 of the 38 goals. Forwards Kathy Lennon, Carolyn Spanick, Peg Hunt, and Sue Joynt also contributed their share of points.

Somerset's strong defense led by Maureen Lennon, Kathy Goodwin, Pat DeMarco, Pam Driscoll, Jo-Anne Doyle, Marsha Belcher, and goalie Tina Iadicola allowed only 10 goals to be scored by the opposition. Both games lost were to Dartmouth, Somerset's arch rival in all sports. With Dartmouth in first place, Somerset placed second in the league.

A Fighting Season

Under the leadership of Mr. Sullivan and his assistants, Mr. Estes, Mr. Souza, and Mr. Carpenter, the football team compiled a record of five wins and five losses during the campaign.

In their first game, the Raiders faced first ranked Bourne away from home. Somerset scored on a 70 yard punt return by Bill Kaylor and a 14 yard sweep by Ken Root. However, the team failed to capitalize on two extra point attempts and Bourne was victorious by one point.

The second outing was against Barnstable at home. The Raiders controlled the game from start to finish. Bill Fasse and Bill Kaylor scored the points for Somerset.

Undefeated Old Rochester continued its winning streak by outlasting the Raiders at home. The Rochester offense could not operate against defensive stalwarts John Soares, Tom Paine, Skip Winters, and Jeff Casey. The game was finally decided in the last minutes when Rochester scored the lone touchdown.

Against Falmouth, Somerset suffered its third loss. The Cape team crossed the goal three times and scored a total of 21 points. Ken Root scored the single Somerset touchdown. On defense, Vasco Pacheco played a tremendous game at end and caused Falmouth to use another route to the goal line.

The Dighton game was the most disappointing game of the season to the Raiders. The poor weather conditions hindered the Somerset offensive attack. With Dighton ahead by six points with minutes remaining in the game, the Raiders were unable to score from their one yard line. The outcome was a six to nothing victory for Dighton.

The Portsmouth Redmen were crushed by an explosive Somerset output. Jeff Reback performed perfectly on both offense and defense. The Raider defensive standouts were Skip Winters, John Soares, Tom Paine, Jeff Casey, and Jeff Reback. Ken Root scored the two touchdowns on the signal calling of Paul Hoole.

Wareham downed the Raiders with a trick play on the opening kick off of the second half. Both teams were deadlocked in a defensive game which was controlled by extremely bad weather.

The all important Thanksgiving Day game was won by Somerset in a one sided contest. Lance Sandberg, Skip Winters, and John Soares opened large holes for the running backs. Bill Kaylor scored both Raider touchdowns. One was a 60 yard run from scrimmage and the other was 19 yards. Jeff Reback finished his high school career as a defensive back and did not allow one pass to be thrown over his head.

After the completion of the season, the coaches of the league teams voted co-captains John Soares and Tom Paine to the All-Tri County League first team. Jeff Reback was given honorable mention.

Their vim and vigor urged Somerset's team to victory. Whether at a football game, a basketball game, or a pep rally, their lusty yells rang out, the essence of school spirit. Coached by Miss Sullivan and co-heads Pat Medeiros and Kathy Arel, the squad met regularly after school to practice and plan new cheers. They really bolstered school spirit when the competition was tough.

Golf Team '65

Mr. Sandiomerski

In the spring of 1965, golf was introduced as a varsity sport on a trial basis under the direction of Mr. Edward Sandiomerski. Although the season's record reflected but one victory, members of the team displayed a high degree of interest and a sincere desire to learn the fundamental aspects of the game.

Somerset competed against the larger Bristol County schools such as, Durfee, Attleboro, Coyle, Bishop Feehan, and Taunton, with home matches played at the Swansea Country Club.

Approximately twenty students were given the opportunity to play, though all of them were not actively engaged in league competition. Returning after a year of gainful experience, seniors Bob Morgan and Mike Rutkowski, rated 1 and 2 in 1965, are expected to provide the opposition with a good deal of competition in 1966.

THE RAIDERETTES

Opening the season with only four experienced players—Kathy Lennon, Peg Hunt, Maureen Lennon, and Sandy Curt, the Varsity Raiderettes proved to be invincible in their regular season's play, with a record of 8 wins, 0 losses. Their standing, including their four non-league games at Hanover, Dartmouth, Attleboro, and Apponequet, gave them an 11-1 record; the only loss went to Hanover.

In their last game against Dartmouth, a 7-1 league contender, the Raiderettes dribbled to a victorious 37-28 score. Somerset's final sweep over Dartmouth left the girls an outstanding 12-1 record. This end victory was well earned by a hard-fighting team of co-operative and skillful players with Peg Hunt and Sandy Curt as the two top scorers. Once again, Coach Corcoran guided her girls to the top.

Basketball '65-'66

Captain Bob Douglas led the Raiders basketball squad to a fourth place finish in the Narry League. Mr. Burns' team won 12 and lost 6 during the season.

The seven senior members of the team were Bob Douglas, Pete Bogle, Dan Costa, Richie Mello, Keith Davidson, John Soares, and Tom Paine.

During the first half of the season, though the team's playing was somewhat inconsistent, the shooting eye of Bob Douglas was right on target, and Pete Bogle and Dan Costa snared most rebounds and scored well. These advantages kept Somerset close to the first division spot.

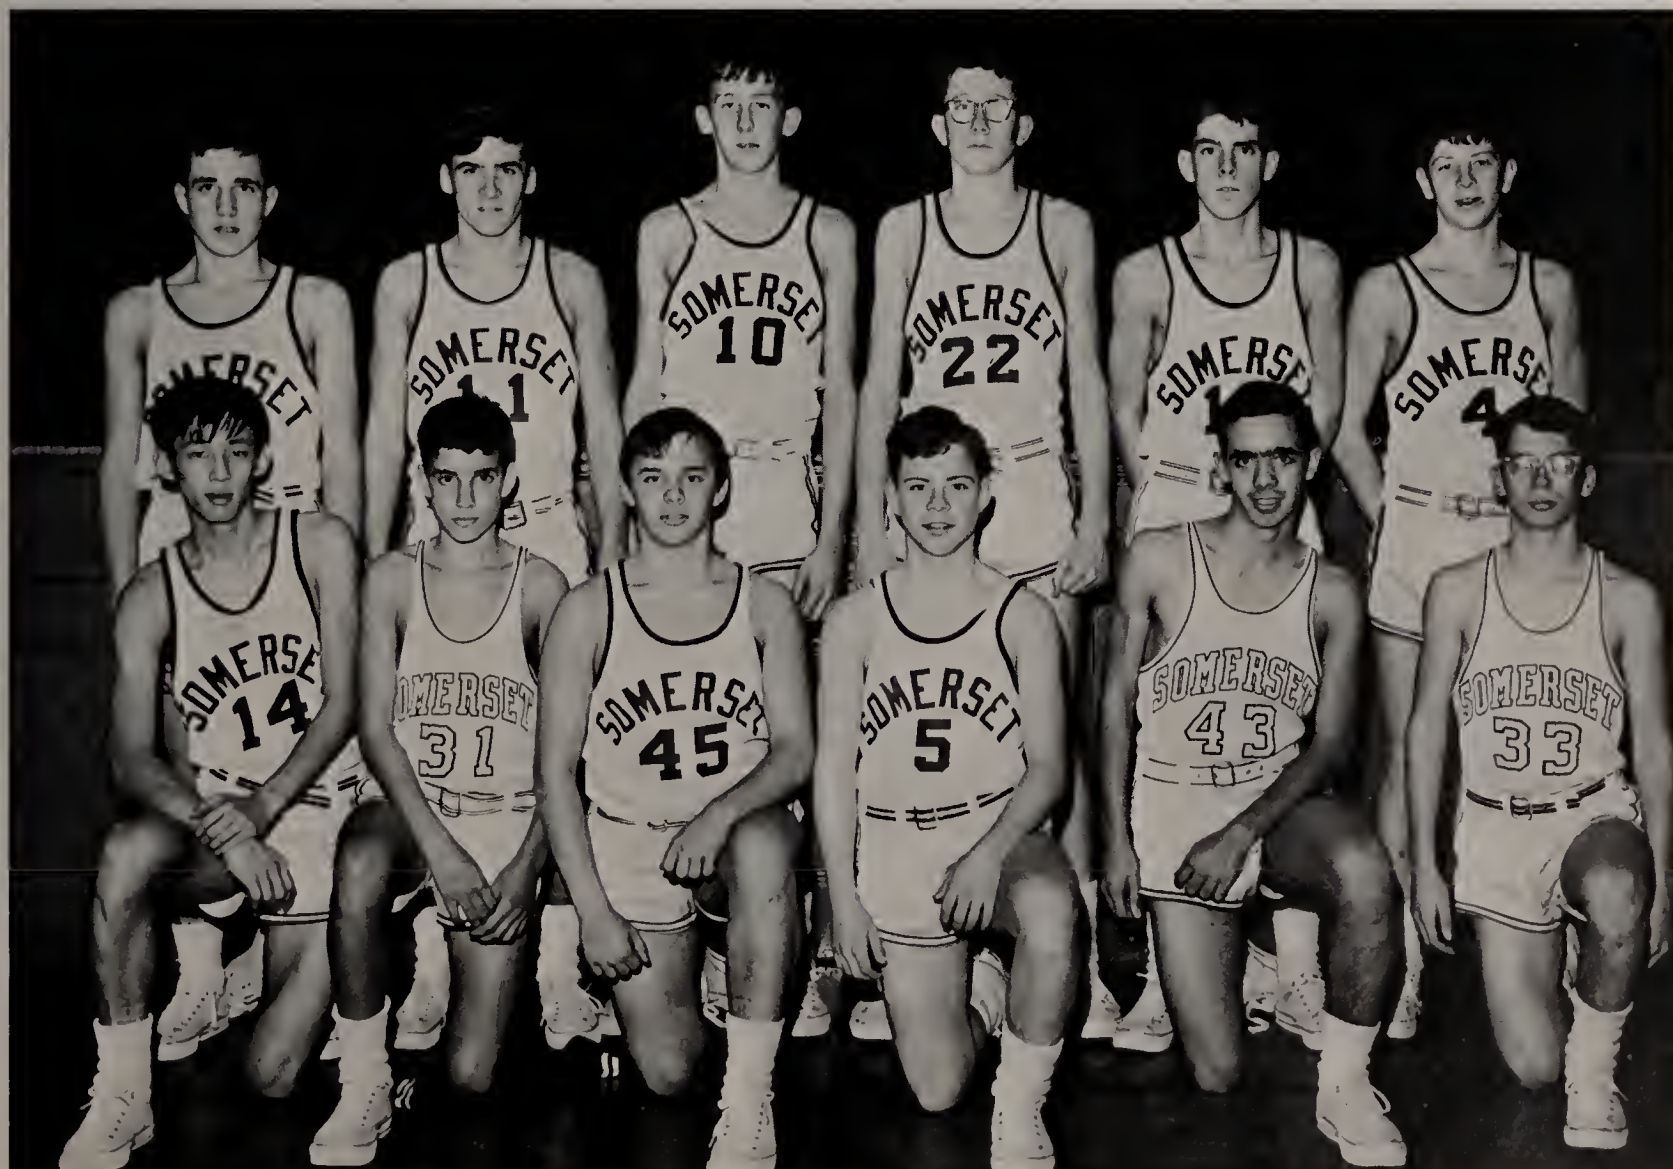

The second half of the season brought about a drastic change in the team. Mr. Burns introduced a new defense and the squad became one of the best in the area. Keith Davidson and Richie Mello broke up all court presses by opponents and assisted Bogle and Costa with the scoring. John Soares and Tom Paine provided the muscle whenever the rebounding became difficult. During this second half, Somerset won all but two games.

Spring Concert

The annual concert presented by the music organizations of the school was once again well acclaimed. Our music director, Mr. Gayzagian, with the assistance of Mrs. Pavao, director of the Girls Glee, provided an entertaining performance for the enthusiastic audience.

The program began with an orchestral selection of Berlioz-Page, the Rakoczy March. Considerable response was received from the audience when such favorites as "Highlights from The Sound of Music", "I Believe", and "September Song" were presented. Just before intermission, the Stage Band swung into some lively swing numbers with Bob Fish as a featured soloist. To round out this musical affair, the flagtwirlers exhibited their skills along with the majorettes to the rhythm of some spirited selections by the school band.

Under the direction of Mrs. Pava the Girls' Glee gave a rendition of songs.

You, the Jury

The dramatic club presented "You the Jury" on June 4 and 5 in the auditorium. It is the story of a young woman who is charged with the murder of a businessman, Chester Arthur Brant. Her lawyer sister tries to save her from conviction. A unique characteristic was that the jury was the audience. They were even obliged to rise when the judge entered. On both evenings the audience, as the jury, an acquittal.

Order! The court will come to order!

Queen Diane Levesque and her escort, Tom Cheetham.

On June eighteenth, "Moon River", the junior-senior prom of 1965, was held in the hardly recognizable school gym. Under the supervision of Mr. James White and with the cooperation of co-chairmen Judith Dionne and Cathy Rollins, the school gym was completely transformed into a beautiful garden of romantic charm. Young couples could toss coins into the flower-covered wishing well, walk across a moonlit bridge, sit on an old-fashioned swing.

Most of the evening was spent dancing to the music of the Buddy Reise Orchestra, but the climax of the night was the selection of the queen. After several moments of suspenseful conference, the judges selected Diane Levesque to reign as "Queen of the Prom." For her attendants, the judges chose Linda Chace and Virginia Payne.

At last the hours of work are compensated by the enjoyment seen in the students' faces.

Graduation 1965

Graduation is a period of mixed emotions. To the graduating student, it is a cutting off of familiar surroundings and places, and simultaneously, a stepping forward to self-betterment. After the entrance march Pomp and Circumstance, the audience was seated and the invocation was delivered by Reverend H. Merrill Emery. The senior speakers were Jack Driscoll, whose speech was entitled "Creation With a Purpose" and Alan Neville, who spoke on "Time, Existence, and Life." The main speaker of the evening was Dr. A. M. Paxon, who gave an informative speech on "The Challenge of This Generation."

Senior Banquet

The Senior Banquet for the class of 1965 was held at White's on the sixteenth of June. To open the evening's proceedings, Mr. Kaylor delivered a brief but sincere address. Class President David Smith assisted in the program by acting as toastmaster. Memoirs editors Dick Simcock and Jack Driscoll read the Class Will to reactions of enjoyment and surprise from many seniors. The keynote of the night was the official declaration that the 1965 Memoirs was dedicated to Mr. Arthur Campbell, the deeply loved and appreciated head custodian who served the Somerset school system so well for so many years.

Christmas Vespers

Mrs. Pavao leads the Girls Glee in song.

To the resonant sound of the Brass Choir, another Christmas Vespers began for a full audience of parents, students, friends, and alumni of Somerset High. The Girls Glee began their traditional march down the center aisle toward the stage singing "O Come All Ye Faithful". On stage they sang such traditionals as "'Twas the Night Before Christmas" with Carol Ward and Linda Fish singing solo parts. "Balulalou", with Susan Augusto as soloist, was their concluding selection. Succeeding the Girls Glee, the Male Chorus started off with "The Sleigh" and ended with the famous "Go Tell It On the Mountain".

After intermission, the Brass Choir played three carols: "It Came Upon the Midnight Clear", "The First Noel", and "Westminster Carol". Then, the Duodecim Cantores, a select group of mixed voices chosen for District and All-State competition, gave an excellent performance of well blended voices. They topped off their performance with "Kyrie Eleison" from Hayden's "Imperial Mass".

The Mixed Chorus, under the direction of Mr. Paul Gayzagian, opened their concert with a selection from the Messiah, "And the Glory of the Lord". Before beginning the last selection, past alumni of the Mixed Chorus were invited to join in the singing of the "Hallelujah Chorus". This performance concluded the Vesper program for Christmas of 1965, a successful musical program presented under the direction and supervision of Mr. Gayzagian and Mrs. Pavao, members of the music department.

Look Back for a Minute!

There were many and varied moments in our years at Somerset High. We studied together and laughed together and, sometimes, even cried together.

Though we reluctantly leave many memories and many loves, we leave happier than what we were when we first came here because we leave richer—in knowledge and in friendship.

Whether serious or light, our active moments were pleasant and meaningful because they were usually shared moments, unselfish moments.

Supplement I

Our Music Man

In recognition of his bringing music into the lives of so many throughout his years of service in the Somerset schools, and his making duty, devotion, and dedication paramount first in his life, we, the Class of 1966, dedicate the first supplement of Somerset High School's Memoirs to "our music man", Mr. Paul L. Gayzagian.

In Recognition

Though faced with the many hazards hemophilia presents, Buddy persevered, and happily, and certainly deservedly, joined the class in commencement exercises on June 15, 1966, a memorable day for him and for us.

For us it was a day of example, an example that lived in the person of Buddy who, we feel, typifies determination, character, and scholarship of the best kind.

Frank D. Sylvia, Jr.

Nickname: Buddy

"If a man does not keep pace with his companions, perhaps it is because he hears a different drummer. Let him step to the music which he hears, however measured or far away."

H. D. Thoreau

Somerset Has 8-9 Season!

The baseball squad finished the season with a record of 11 wins and 7 losses. The fairly successful season was made possible through the cooperative efforts of all team members.

Captain Jeff Casey provided the team with solid hitting power, and Tom Paine added to the excitement of the season with the home runs he hit over the right field fence of Hanson Field. Speed and all around physical performances were the norm for the team.

FRONT ROW: J. Zacamy, R. Morgan, M. Rutkowski, R. Douglas, J. Silvia, M. Gauthier. SECOND ROW: Mr. Sandomierski, G. Boule, P. Bordman, P. Higginbottom, J. Donnelly, G. Harrington.

Golf '66

The Somerset High School golf team completed its first year of varsity competition in June. The Raiders competed in the Bristol Scholastic Golf League's western division, which is comprised from the area's larger schools.

Coach Sandomierski guided the team to a successful 3-7-2 record against the more experienced teams. It was a happy first season for the team and the coach.

Girls in Sports '66

Under the direction of Miss Corcoran and Captain Peggy Hunt, the 1966 softball team captured the title of Bristol County Girls' League champions with a strong record of eight wins and no losses. Supporting members of the team were: Peggy Hunt at center field, Sandra Curt at shortstop, and Pat DeMarco as pitcher. With this united and well-balanced team, Coach Corcoran once again guided her girls to the top.

The 1966 volleyball team enjoyed a successful season under the direction of co-captains Kathy Lennon and Kathy Goodwin. Through the efforts of the entire team and the guidance of Coach Corcoran, the volleyball team had an impressive record of nine wins and two losses, a record that gave the team the second place title in the Bristol County Girls' League.

Track '66

The track squad broke even with a 3-3 meet record this season. With Mr. White as coach, Jerry Fletcher, John Soares, and Bill Kaylor were tri-captains for a season that was highlighted by the breaking of two school track records. Jerry Fletcher pole vaulted 12 feet to establish a new school record. In the shot put, John Soares bettered the old shot put mark by tossing 44 feet 6 inches.

It is a lovesick world for Gossage and Billings.

Under the direction of Mr. Ward on Friday, March 25th, the Somerset High School Dramatic Club presented "The Happiest Days of Your Life", a rollicking three act comedy.

An administrative error, orders a boys' and girls' school to combine to offset expenses incurred by the war that is on at the time. Neither school is aware that the other is of the opposite sex. The temporarily unalterable situation fosters confusion, chaos, and even love. The circumstances lend themselves readily to a dialogue full of wit and unexpected hilarity.

Plaudits must be given to the leads Lucille Hamel and Wayne Bardsley, but three stars go to Bruce McFarland for a superb performance. The entire cast produced an exceptionally enjoyable evening of theatre and all proceeds went to the Citizens' Scholarship Fund.

Spring Concert

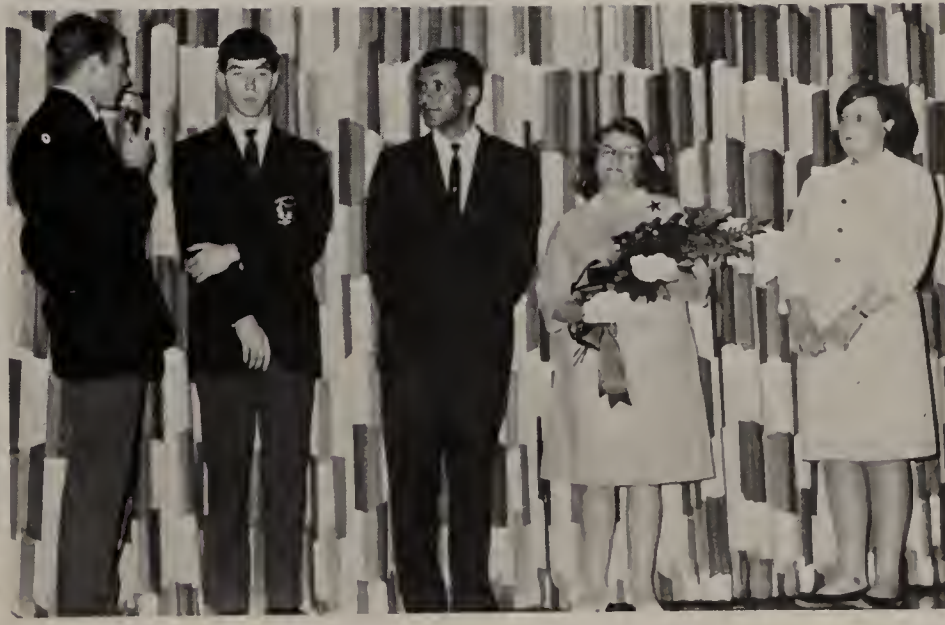

May 27, 1966

The annual spring concert, presented by the school music organizations was once again well acclaimed. With the assistance of music director, Mr. Paul Gayzagian, and the assistant director Miss Natalie Heselton, the program provided the enthusiastic audience with an entertaining evening.

The program began with an orchestral selection of Mozart, Divertimento, K. 270. The male chorus selection, The Whiffenpoof Song and There Is Nothing Like a Dame gave added life to the concert. One Hand, One Heart and Goodnight My Someone captured the spot of the old time favorites, this time rendered by the Girls Glee. The mixed chorus climaxed the evening with You'll Never Walk Alone.

At the close of the evening, since it was Mr. Gayzagian's last concert at Somerset, the mixed chorus sang a surprise tribute to him, Climb Every Mountain. In addition, members of the musical organizations presented Mr. and Mrs. Gayzagian with farewell gifts and a floral bouquet.

Dedication '66

Senior Banquet

The Class of '66 joined Mr. and Mrs. Leary in their joy at discovering that the 1966 Memoirs was dedicated to Mr. Charles P. Leary, and the class also took pride in being able to announce the dedication of the first supplement of Memoirs to our beloved music director, Mr. Paul Gayzagian. Both honored guests made our banquet an especially memorable evening.

Getting Ready!

Graduation

After the entrance march to Pomp and Circumstance, the seniors and the audience were seated to receive the program. Following Reverend Alden Burhoe's delivery of the invocation, the two senior speakers delivered their addresses, Sarah Grusmark's speech was entitled "A Rose, Is A Rose, Is A Rose", and Joy Vandgrift spoke on "Character: Pathway to Success".

The guest speaker of the evening was Dr. Paul van K. Thomson, Vice President of Providence College. He addressed the audience on "The Responsibilities of Citizenship".
